A Breakthrough by Cole EverDark

Hey JT, just want to say thank you for the windfall excitement. Thank you so much. Keep the ride going. Let me know when I start signing leases for an apartment. I'm having an amazing one. Thank you so much. By the way, was wondering if you could maybe offer them something. Get rid of TJ. They can stay move hotels up to you. The people deserve it. Cut a few of the darker staff if you get like all of them just based on elephant bone s but honestly like yeah also with this hotel. I just want to report that we had a four five new faces every week as I'm guessing or guesstimating that we are signing leases at least once a week. So anyways it's up to you but it would be absolutely amazing to me. But yeah I'm so sorry about the other night. Pretty f pathetic. I know I was just f tired. I've been up 4 days stretches working on 1142.ca so I just I don't know. I didn't really know what what kind of format this project was going to end up with? I was originally thinking a few things I don't really know but I kind of was going with a website. So yeah or a YouTube channel honestly. But I did both so yeah but I don't know. I honestly thought I would just be like kind of thing. You can see posters and you just be like yo. It's lymphony to hit a f talk. Take some acid but anyways I don't know it. It honestly helps you think a lot deeper into things if you have down syndrome. But yeah and that's the problem. You don't know down syndrome. Anyways I'm so sorry and I just I'm used to people in power calling me s name. So thank you for welcomeing me and I'm getting used to it. I'm just sorry. Thank you so much. Have an amazing one. It's hard to be from the country man. Thank you. Bless peace. Oh if you can give Tina and ultimatum saying TJ leaves they can keep either satellite up and you'll pay for it or get a new hotel space. That would be amazing! I didn't know people got f up here so much and I just kind of wanted to replace people s before I leave so and I can't see her with that guy cuz he's garbage like he's filthy to people I know as soon as they go on the street. Bam if you don't mind doing that for me that would be amazing! And yeah thank you so much for just getting them out of trouble in arms way and everything else. Plus peace rock on
